SPIRIT

It is only important to love the world . . .
To regard the world and ourselves and all beings
with love, admiration and respect.

Hermann Hesse

We hurriedly ran from the safety of schoolyards in search of a better more beautiful world.
One day we turned in the road to find our new worlds were all in our minds.

Rod McKuen

Love is a symbol of eternity.
It wipes out all
sense of time,
destroying all memory
of a beginning
and all fear of an end.

Anna Louise De Stael

We have the power to make this the best generation in the history of mankind or to make it the last. JFK

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die;

A time to plant, and time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal;

A time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh;

A time to morn, and a time to dance;

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;

A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose;

A time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew;

A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate;

A time of war, and a time of peace.

Ecclesiastes
3:1-8

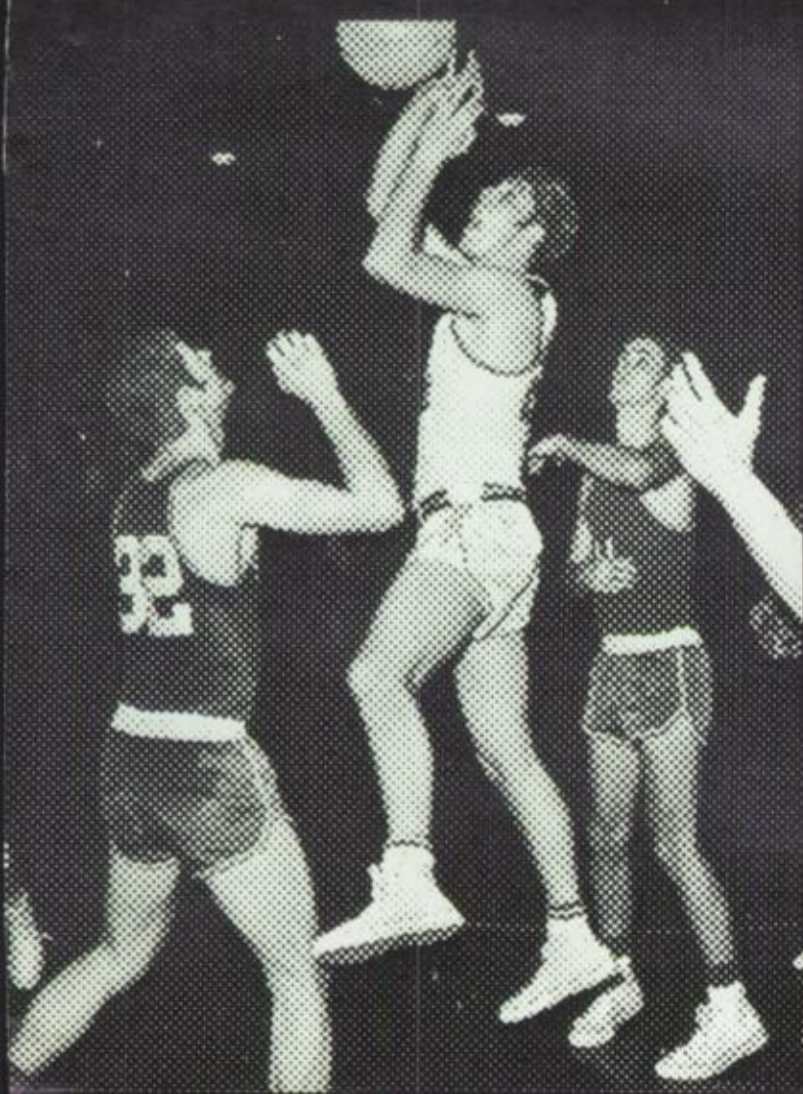

Humility often gains more than pride.

Kindness is the golden chain by which society is bound together.

Homecoming Highlighted by

Homecoming that took place on October 13-14 was an event sparked with excitement and gaiety; starting with a parade on Friday. There was an overall feeling of festivity as the queen candidates and their escorts arrived at the football field in their decorated cars and were seated. As the game got under way, a slight rain began to fall, but this didn't dampen anyone's high spirits. At halftime, the band formed a pathway for each lovely girl and her escort. There were many tears as last year's queen relinquished her crown to the new. Following the coronation it was announced that the eighth grade class won the float contest. The homecoming activities were concluded with a dance that took place in the cafetorium Saturday evening. It was the perfect romantic setting for the theme "Starlight and Roses". Music was provided by "The Triads". The evening was a memorable finish for the celebration.

Every year the American Legion sponsors two boys and a girl to go to Boys' and Girls' State. The boys attend a weekend at Indiana State, Terre Haute and the girls go to Indiana University, Bloomington. During their stay they carry on a mock election which involves the very same processes as in a real one.

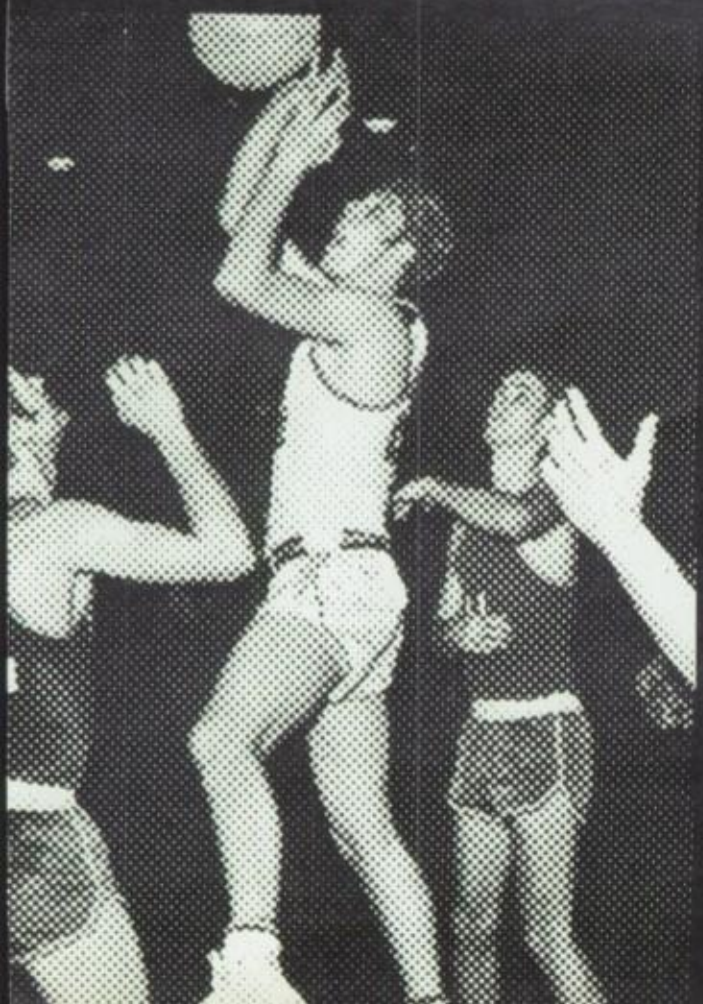

The participants would like to thank everyone that was responsible for giving them this educational experience.

For Years to Come

Indianapolis

A cap and gown
A rose from a bouquet
Pressed in a book —
The program of the day
The swell of music
And a lifting of the heart —
The feeling of a new life
Soon to start
Autographs gathered
A flurry of "Good-byes"
An unexpected stinging
Of the eyes
Speeches about the future
Bright and new
Long, silent dreams
Of many things to do —
Parties and dances
Gifts and preparations
And running through it all —
CONGRATULATIONS!

A stylized line drawing of a rose. The rose is depicted with multiple layers of petals, some of which are shaded with dark lines to create depth. The stem is thick and dark, with several small, pointed leaves attached. The overall style is simple and graphic, using bold black outlines on a white background.

A black and white photograph of seven graduates in caps and gowns, arranged in two rows: four standing in the back and three seated in the front. The graduates are wearing white gowns and white mortarboards, except for the second person in the back row who is wearing a dark gown and a dark mortarboard. They are all smiling and looking towards the camera. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

"America"

Let us be free now we've finished our duty together,
Twelve years of hard work, and what have we done?
There's so many things we've learned, not all have been from the books —
Now walk off to look for America.
Teacher — I said — as he called my own class together,
What do we fight about, why is there war?
But through our time here we've learned that there's peace somewhere —
I'll go to look for America.
Searching for truth as well as false things in the world —
Until we realize the difference as we cross them by.
Now it is finished, we've completed day after day.
Wanting to leave but glad that we stayed.
So now, we turn around and face a new goal . . .
It's a big wide world out there.
Teacher — I'm stuck on this problem, though I knew his was done,
I'm alone and I'm scared and I don't know why —
Leaving behind us the things we all love —
Well we all go to look for America . . . all go to look for America
. . . all go to look for America . . .

TAKE TIME

Whatever you do
Take some time out today
From the routines of living
That stand in your way . . .
Take a minute to look
At the brilliant blue sky
And the lovely cloud pictures
That go drifting by . . .

Spend some time with a child —
Share the laughter and joy
And the innocent wonder
Of small girl or boy . . .
Get in touch with a friend
Who is special to you
And don't miss any chances
To meet someone new . . .

Enjoy a bird's song
Or a walk in the sun —
There's so much to be seen
And so much to be done
That time spent with beauty
And peace and content
Is never time wasted
But rather-well-spent!

WHEN THE JOURNEY STARTS . . .

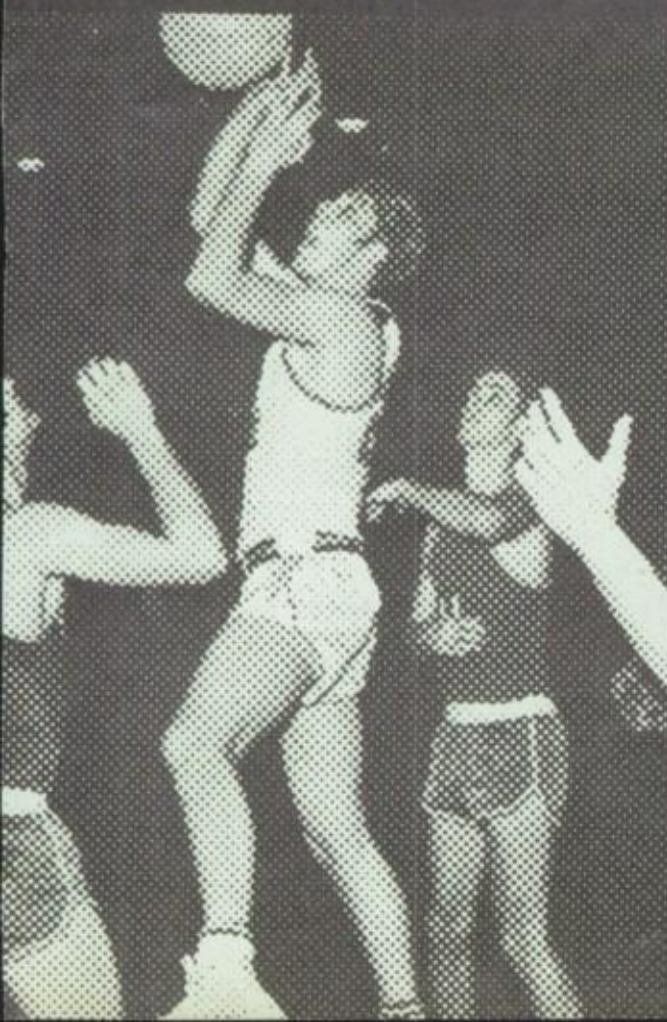

Nobody knows when the journey starts
What he'll find along the way —
A storm-tossed sea, a thicket of thorns
Or a quiet, peaceful bay . . .
Nobody knows when the journey starts
If he will travel alone
Or in the company of cherished friends
That he can call his own . . .

There is no map for the journey
To guide our footsteps along
Only our youth, our faith in ourselves
And our courage to keep us strong . . .
For youth is the time of hopes and dreams
When life's journey is only begun
Till the hills and the valleys are safely crossed
And the summit is finally won.

Jr. Pickles are Mmmm GOOD!!!

The juniors really got things together and made this a year to remember. Besides holding the concession stand, they presented the football players with donuts and apple cider.

The juniors were in charge of the magazine sales and broke, not only their goal, but all school records with a grand total of $8506.75 making a sizable profit to go towards the prom and next year's senior activities.

Juniors showed their spirit in many ways throughout the school year. More times than not they won the spirit stick, they won the sectional poster contest, and it was also a junior who won the individual locker contest.

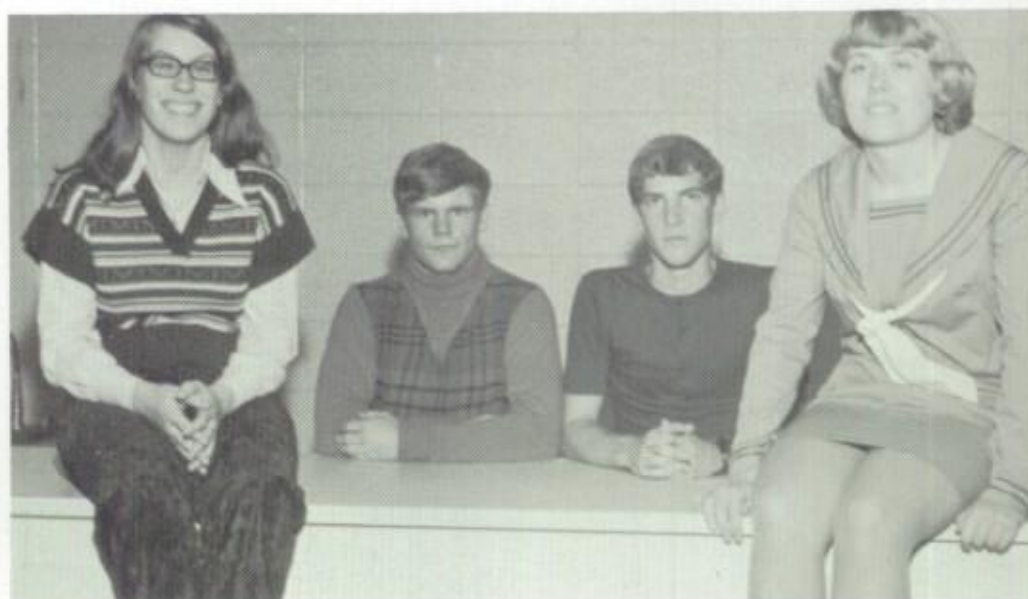

In the middle of the year the juniors sent money to the Northern Cheyenne Indian Reservation in hopes that it would make things a little easier.

For their class party they showed the movie "Wait Until Dark". Afterwards, Scott McDowell and Mike Mickelson's group played while everyone danced.

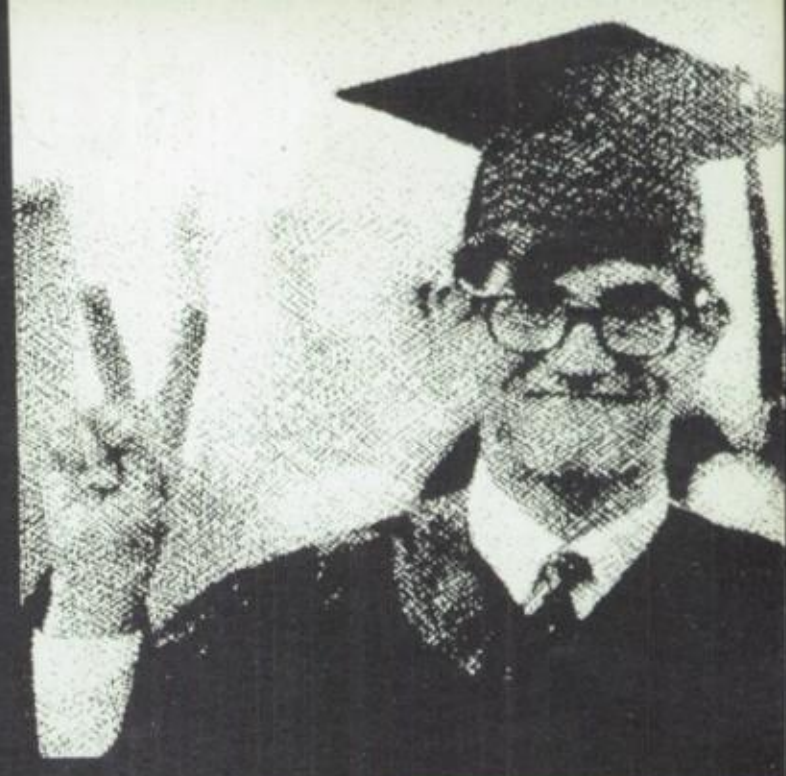

The highlight of the Junior year was the prom, with the theme being "Un Jour du Paris". For after prom entertainment "Atlantis" played. The juniors would like to thank their sponsors, Mr. Wagner and Mr. Zonker, for helping to make this a great year.

Sophomore Class Officers: Micki Koch, Treasurer; Kim Likes, Secretary; Becky Hill, V.-Pres.; Gary Oberlin, President.

The Sophomore class of 1975 had a very productive year. The two main events that they experienced were the ordering and receiving of class rings and jackets. They decided to change the styles of the rings by ordering oval shaped ones instead of the common square style. The class colors of purple and white were chosen for their jackets.

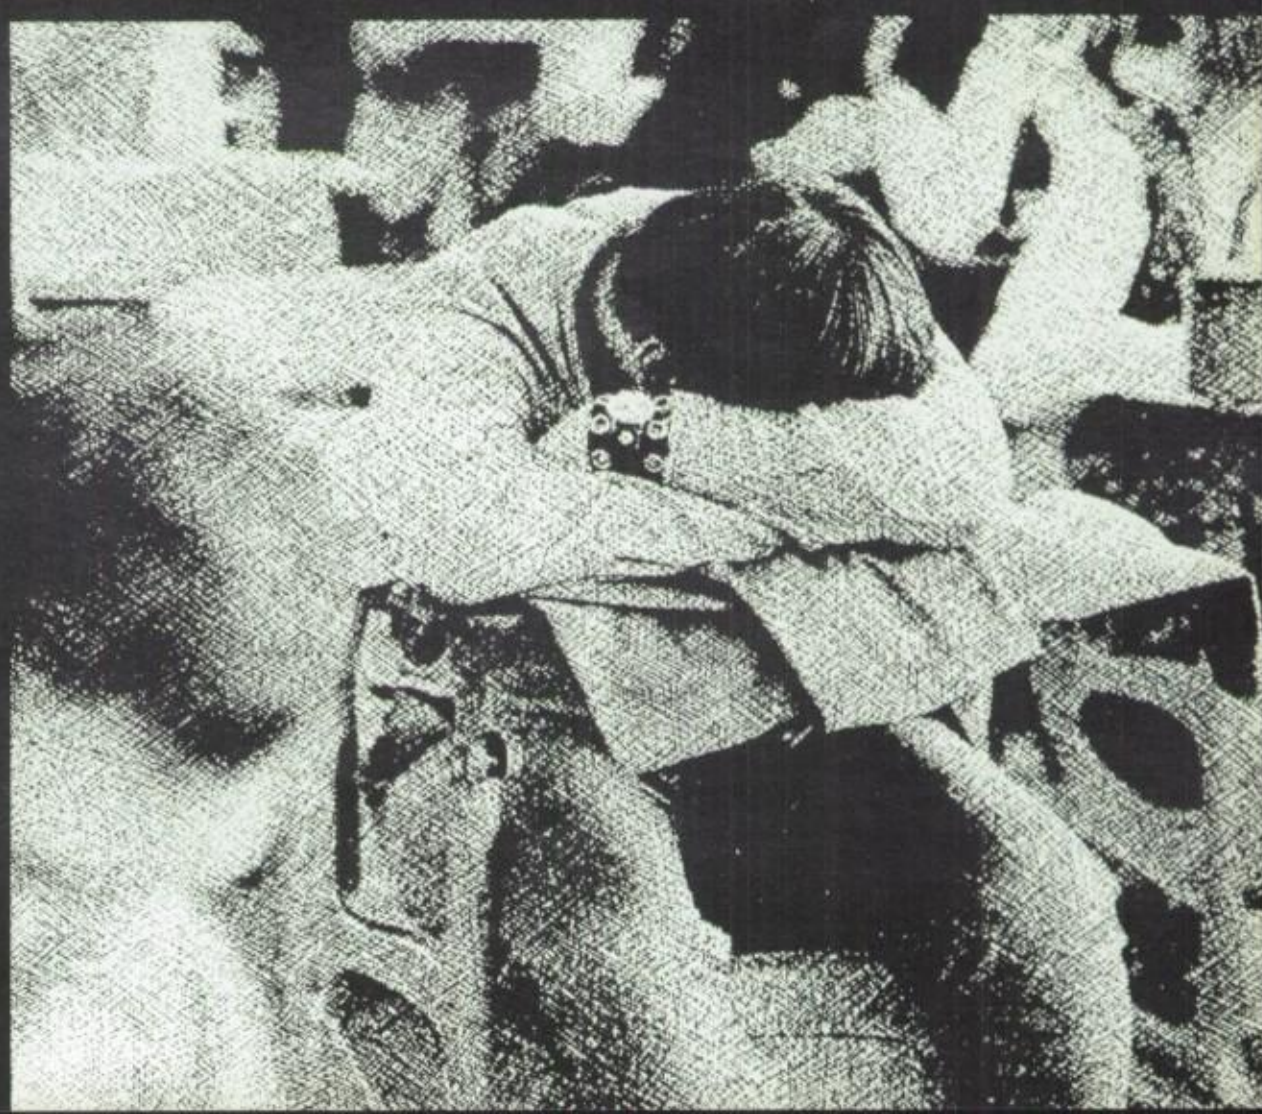

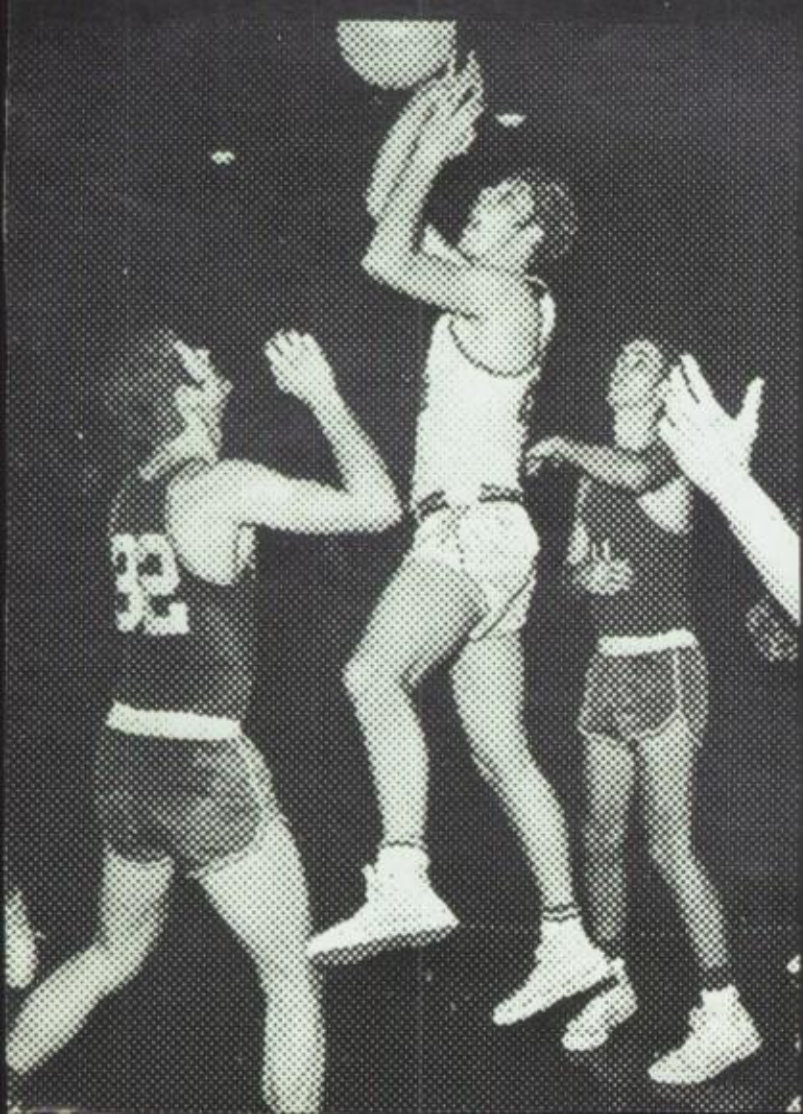

The Sophomores showed their spirit by winning the spirit stick many times and being the cheerblock for the WOWO Air Aces.

Two horror films were shown at their first class party. The second was a dance and pizza party. They would like to give sincere thanks to their sponsors.

Here at Eastside, many of the teachers have been working hard on selecting new books and the English department met weekly for most of the school year to revise the English curriculum.

Many faculty members give up great amounts of their time to sponsor extra-curricular activities. Their duties range from coaching to guiding classes, to advising organizations. Without the leadership of capable faculty members, many of these activities would not be in existence.

Teachers were active in the area of sports too. They donned basketball uniforms and cheer leading outfits to raise money for the athletic department by playing the WOWO Air Aces. Even though the faculty lost to the Aces, the spirit was high and the students were proud.

The Student Council had charge of many activities. The most important to the students was the dress code revision. The 1973 Homecoming was planned with a dance, parade, and coronation. "Pride in East-side" week, "Field Day" and the sectional poster contest were arranged to help raise spirit. Convos were selected for student enjoyment. They also created three new committees to help manage school rules and discipline; Student Relations, Curriculum Advisory Committee, and Constitution Committee. In junction with the AV Club, they put up over a hundred "No Deer Hunting" signs to protect Butler's mascot, Suzy. This organization is the bridge between the student body and the administration. All their efforts are appreciated.

Don't worry! I've got everything under control!

One must be willing to be dedicated and to contribute to the success of the band. This organization puts in a lot of time and effort to provide a bevy of entertainment for its school and community. Not only do they contribute to Eastside's spirit by playing at the pep sessions and ballgames, but each year they give a Christmas and Spring concert.

During the course of the year, the Blazettes and Flag Corps performed at the home football and basketball games and also at the DeKalb County Fair. For a fund raising project to buy pom-poms the Blazettes worked diligently to sell candles.

This year the Band Boosters sponsored a candy sale for the expansion of the department. Also, for the first time, they had a Band Awards Banquet.

Each year the Spanish Club sponsors a scholarship fund in order for several students to go to Torreon, Coahuila Mexico. This year the club sent three girls: Chris Keller, Linda Girardot and Ruth Angelone. The program involves a six week summer school. The participants stay in a Mexican home and are helped to fit in to the society and culture. There's an option to go to Mexico City for four days. This tour includes visiting the famous Church of Guadalupe, the University of Mexico, several market places and some other historical sights.

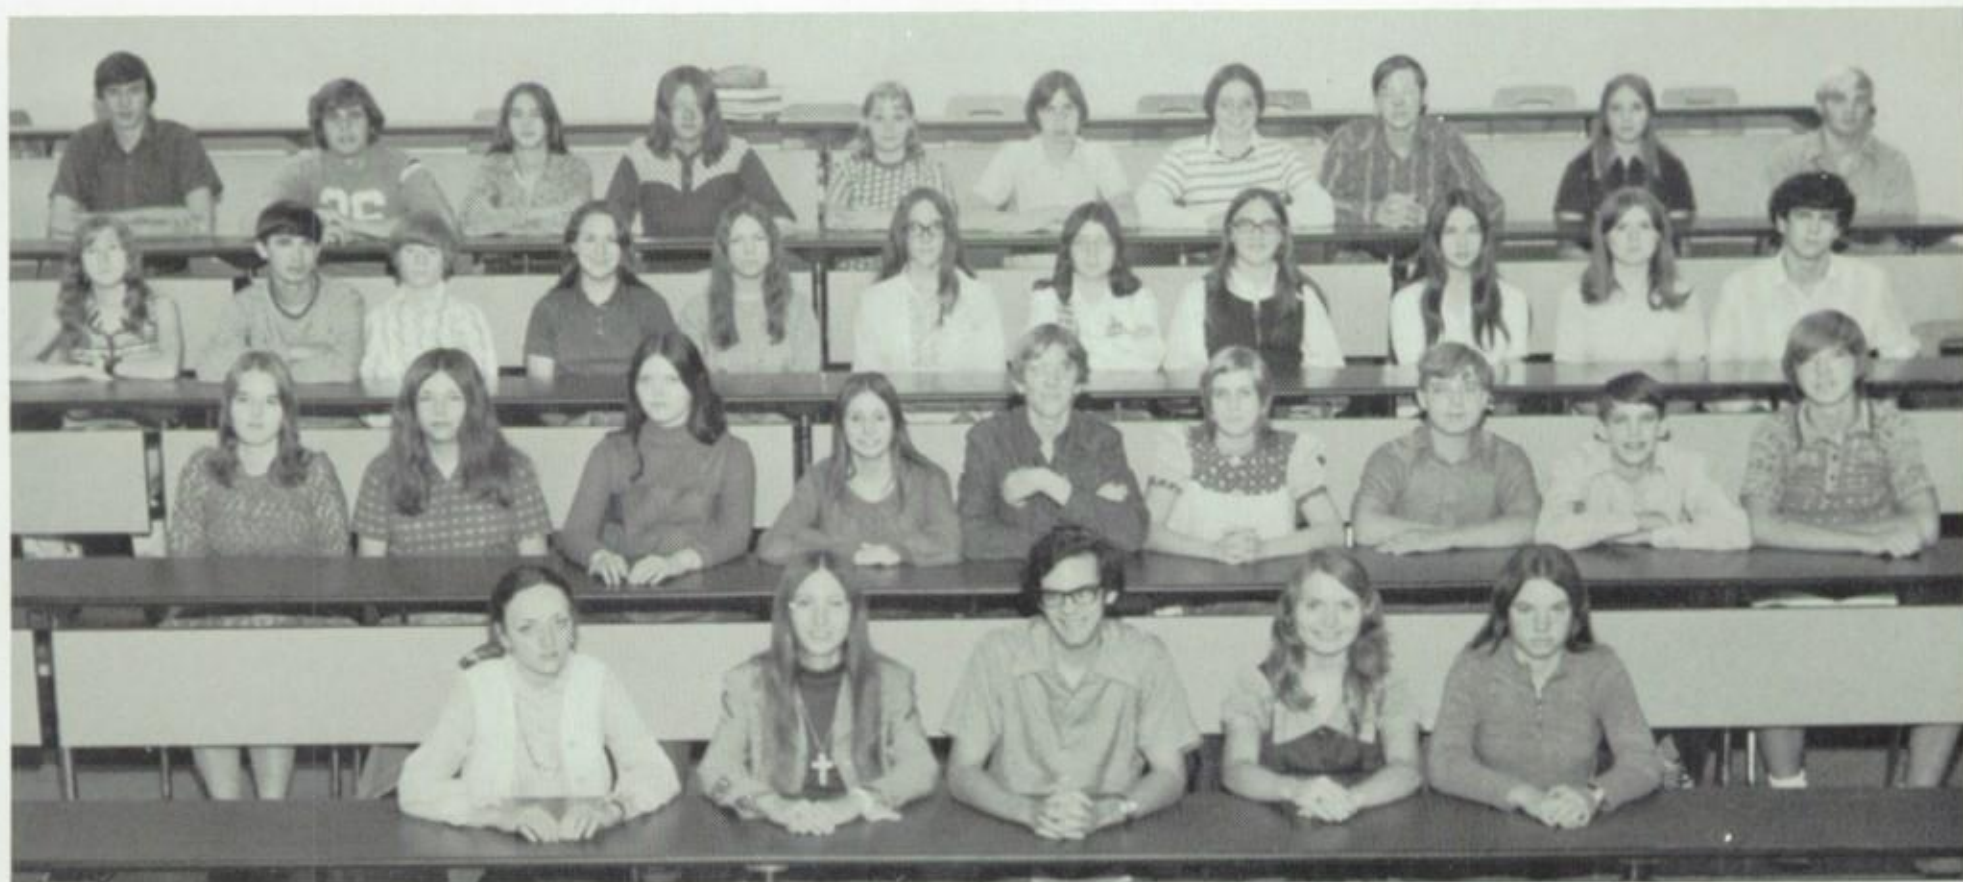

The girls would like to thank all the donors who contributed toward the scholarship. In appreciation they provide a night's entertainment at club meetings by showing their slides and souvenirs.

The trip is a meaningful experience. It provides a chance to see how others live in a different country. It is hoped that this worthwhile program will be continued for many years.

The Drama Club is open to any student in grades 9-12. This year they produced the comedy "Charley's Aunt" directed by Mr. Cripe, and "Finian's Rainbow" directed by Mrs. Myers and Mrs. Doden. Part of the year was spent in making flats necessary for the production of Charley's Aunt. They hope to add to these in the future.

The Thespian troupe (1965) is an honorary organization affiliated with the International Thespian Society. To become a member a student must earn at least ten points in drama work. This year they directed and produced six one-act plays.

The cheerleaders raised money by having bake sales and car washes to help pay the fee for cheer camp.

The football season began with a new kind of feeling this year. The new coaching staff really had the guys fired up. We wanted the crowd to match this enthusiasm and during the year both adults and students worked very hard to prove their spirit. Throughout the basketball and football seasons we worked hard to support the team by decorating locker rooms, preparing orange slices for the teams at half time, and decorating the players' buses.

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK . . .

Now that you've turned to the final page in the 1973 Easterner, I hope you take time to read this note. It takes a lot of imagination and determination to publish a yearbook. One could never realize just how much unless they have done it themselves. There are several people who I would like to give a sincere thanks for standing by me and helping me this past year.

Linda Girardot, commonly known as my right hand, was our Business Manager this year. She and her staff organized and carried out the advertisement campaign. After her work was done she was always there to help me meet deadlines. She gave up many nights after school to prepare layouts and copy. I could never truly express how thankful I am that she was there.

Pam Timmerman, Sherry Maloy, and Dora Feters also spent a lot of time with pictures and typing. They certainly took a lot of work off my hands. Thank you.

The artwork that you have seen throughout the book was done by Wendy Wilson, Kenny White, and Mrs. Lois Girardot. It's these added touches that make this yearbook unique. They deserve a sincere thanks.

At the beginning of this year I started out with very little knowledge about the publications business. There are two people who took a tremendous amount of patience with me and taught me the basics: Mr. James Arthur and Mr. Photographer (Don). I wish to thank them and apologize for all the headaches I put them through.

As I said before Linda and I spent many nights after school to produce this book for you. Several people need to be recognized for their helpfulness. The night custodians were very nice to us when we wanted in our publications room at night. Also thank you very much to the person who didn't get mad at me for spending so many hours away from home. The food you brought us was good too!

A special thanks goes to Mrs. Hood, Mr. Williams, and Mr. Wagner for giving us their guidance and time. Mrs. Hood was very open minded when listening to some of our crazy ideas.

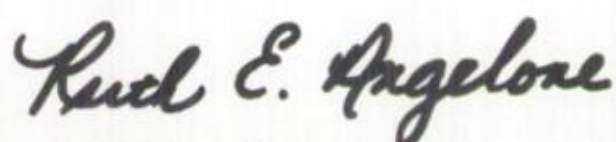

Thanks to my layout committee. They spent nights away from home to think up captions, draw up pages and ended up watching T.V. 95% of the time, but I could have never gotten along without them.

This year has been rewarding and challenging, but most of all, fun. I enjoyed it and I appreciate all the people who stopped by to see how we were doing.

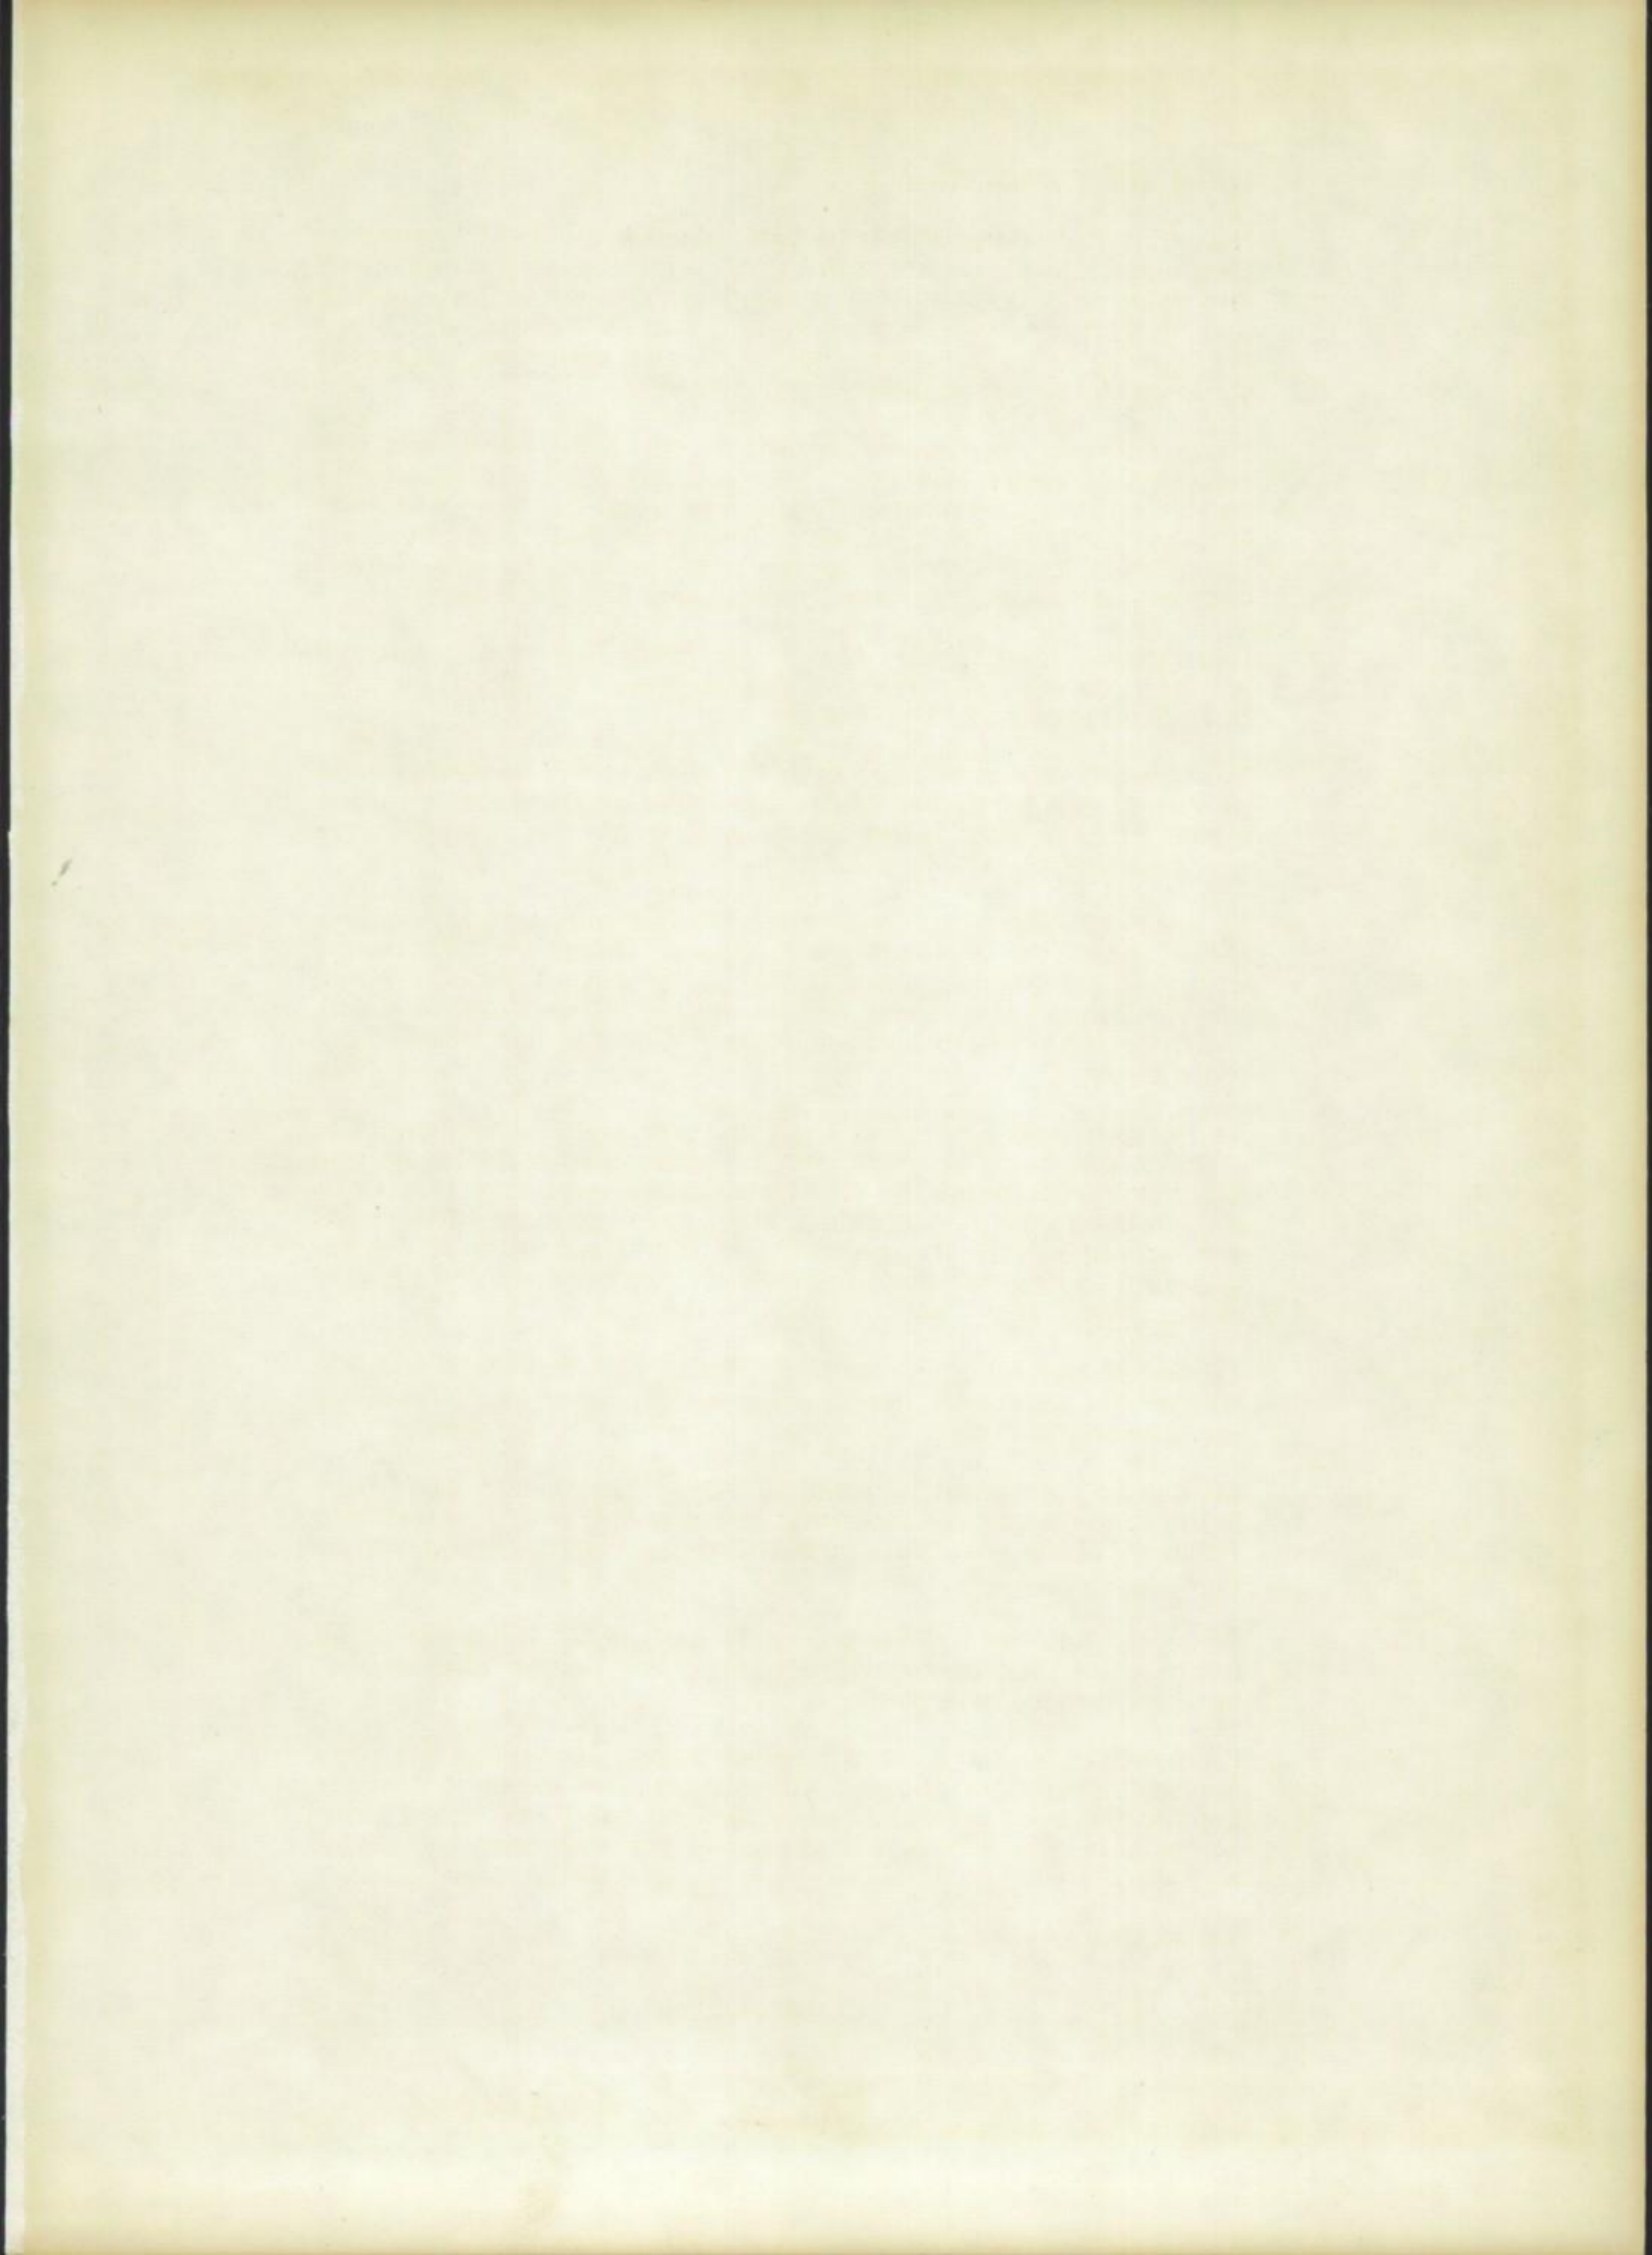

Even though we put a lot of hard work into publishing this book, it's the advertisers and the subscribers who make it possible. I hope this book lets you remember the good and happy times at Eastside. The moment is gone, but the memories will always be there.

Take care everyone:

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, reading "Ruth E. Angelone". The script is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each word being capitalized and prominent.
